I could not send you our payment without letting you know how much we appreciated your services. The DVD you sent us with all of your comments is priceless! At first, we looked at the report, which made us a little nervous. But after listening to your comments and seeing what you were talking about with our own eyes, we felt so good about making an educated decision. We were able to pinpoint, with ease, what we felt the homeowner should fix and what wasn't a big deal.

Thank you for providing such an excellent service and value!

Best regards,
